“Together for a better world” is the motto of the AACII. With the aero+ space sector we can improve our ecosystem. This creates a new dimension for applications in all areas that also master new challenges.

Students, who initiated New Generation for the AACII received the first prize of the DLR Deutsche Luft-Raumfahrt German Aviation Aerospace. Research Center of Willstaetter Gymnasium with young students who had exhibited their projects at the AACII got the first prize from Jugend Forscht – Youth Research. AACII Astrokids got appreciation from top official side. The AACII has the goal to support the new talents for they are future of all of us.

The request of participants of the first AACII Congress was to continue with Expert Talks bridging time until the second AACII with exciting topics. We look forward to your reply to welcome you at the AACII Congress.

With best regards
Ulrike Trapp CEO AACII
